Cultural Tourism

Gita Jayanti Utsav

The Gita Jayanti Utsav held every year in Kurukshetra is also a great platform to showcase its grandeur and diversity. Famous in the country and abroad, this festival has a lasting impact on the lives of the visitors. The preaching of The Gita by Lord Krishna on the holy land of Kurukshetra spreads the message of the welfare of the entire human race and the essence of life. By organising this festival, the new generation is being introduced to ancient tradition, while tourism is also getting a boost.

Surajkund Mela: A Symbol of Cultural Unity

Haryana holds place of pride on the global tourist calendar for the Surajkund (Faridabad) International Crafts Fair, the largest in the country. The fair is organised every year in the first week of February. The fair specifically showcases the richness and diversity of handicrafts, handlooms and vibrant cultures of all the states of India. Every year, in this craft fair organized in Surajkund, where artisans, weavers, and artists from all over the country and abroad exhibit their art, the huge attendance of tourists has added a vibrant character to the fair. The fair is a unique platform for cultural exchange among India and countries around the world.

Financial Assistance for Pilgrimages

The Haryana Government is providing financial assistance to the tune of Rs 10,000 per pilgrim for the Sindhu Darshan pilgrimage, Rs 50,000 per pilgrim for the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra and Rs 6,000 per pilgrim for the Guru Darshan Yojna for those visiting Sri Huzur Sahib Gurdwara (Nanded), Sri Nankana Sahib, Sri Hemkund Sahib and Sri Patna Sahib.

Visit Haryana — And Behold its Supernatural Beauty

It is a matter of pride that despite being a small state geographically, Haryana has the potential to attract tourists in many ways. It is not only rich in historical, religious heritage but also fairs, festivals, etc. It is also a wonderful destination that reflects cultural harmony, boasts historical as well as traditional values which is Haryana's pride and also a source of inspiration for the new generation.
