

Bijapur Lodge, Rajasthan

Away from the madding crowds that throng Pali's lava-cooled outcrops for a glimpse of the friendly leopards of Jawai, sits the recently launched Bijapur Lodge. A sophisticated wildlife lodge designed to blend in with the arid landscape of the region, it offers six suites with lots of breathing room and a designated long desk to lay out your photography setup. In Jawai, not sighting a leopard is extremely unlikely, so the Bijapur Lodge team packs in immersive tours into Rabari settlements, forest picnics, and excursions to the stunning Jawai dam and little-known local gems to boot. bijapurlodge.com

Reni Pani Jungle Lodge, Madhya Pradesh

The forests of Satpura Tiger Reserve provide shelter to a rich variety of wildlife and flora, including the reni berry, which lends its name to Reni Pani Jungle Lodge. The stylish and yet earthy wildlife resort offers three types of cottages and luxury tents, with the latter having close access to a waterhole. Also, inquire about horse safaris that the lodge conducts in the buffer zone of the reserve.
jehannuma.com/reni-pani-jungle-lodge-satpura-resort

Chambal Safari Lodge, Uttar Pradesh

An hour and a half's drive from Agra is Jarar near the Chambal Wildlife Sanctuary, where harmless-looking gharials crawl on top of tiny islands to sunbathe in the Chambal river. Visitors looking to take boat safaris to spot these reptiles may hole up at Chambal Safari Lodge, a rustic property with 13 cottages, each with their own sit-out space. chambalsafari.com

Evolve Back Kuruba Safari Lodge, Karnataka

Kabini has amassed quite a bit of following among millennial wildlife enthusiasts of late, and this luxurious resort provides a comfortable sanctuary for those looking to spend a long weekend and enjoy the sights and sounds of nature. It has three accommodation classes where ethnic motifs marry a modern decor sensibility. evolveback.com/kabini

Samode Safari Lodge, Madhya Pradesh

Despite attracting honeymooners and luxury resort seekers in droves every year, this adults-only property in Bandhavgarh National Park remains at its heart a safari lodge. The 12 villas, designed in a vernacular architectural style, follow a uniform plan with differing decor schemes. Safaris take place twice every day. samode.com/safarilodge

Diphlu River Lodge, Assam

As the iconic Kamrup Komplex's modern avatar, Diphlu River Lodge has consistently ranked among India's top wildlife stays. Here, you will stay in bamboo-and-thatch cottages raised on stilts, and go on jeep safaris into Kaziranga National Park and dolphin boat safaris on the Brahmaputra.
diphluriverlodge.com