

Fair and Festivals

Rajasthan is a land of fairs and festivals. These are some of the major festivals to look forward to in the coming months.

Teej Festival

19-20 August, 2023/Jaipur

Teej is a monsoon festival celebrating the bounty of nature. The festival is mainly for women, and includes a variety of fun activities. Teej is dedicated to Goddess Parvati, also known as Teej Mata. In Jaipur, a royal procession of Goddess Teej starts from the City Palace, winding its way through Tripolia Bazaar and Chhoti Chaupar on both days. The traditional sweet Ghewar is enjoyed heartily over its duration.

Abhaneri Festival

27-28 September, 2022/Dausa

This festival is named after Abhaneri — home of the Chand Baori stepwell — in Dausa district, 90 kilometres from Jaipur. The two-day festival has gained immense popularity among tourists and showcases various Rajasthani & local folk performances like Kachhi Ghori, Kalbeliya, Ghoomar, and Bhawai. Initiated by Rajasthan Tourism in 2008, the festival is very popular.

Marwar Festival

8-9 October, 2022/Jodhpur

The two-day festival is held in the month of Ashwin (September-October) in memory of the heroes of Rajasthan. The main attraction is the folk music centred around the romantic lifestyle of Rajasthan's rulers, with a focus on the music and dance of Marwar. Other attractions at the festival include the Camel Tattoo Show and competitions like Moustache, Turban Tying, Tug of War, Matka Race, Traditional Dress Competition and many more. The venues of this festival include the famous Clock Tower & Osian's sand dunes.

Chandrabhaga Fair

7-9 November, 2022/Jhalawar

Every year, the Chandrabhaga Fair welcomes thousands of visitors from all over the nation. It is held at Jhalrapatan, six kilometres from Jhalawar, in the month of Kartik (October and November). Pilgrims assemble on the banks of river Chandrabhaga during the festival, which is very sacred to the people of Rajasthan. People travel from far just for a dip as they believe this will purify their souls. A huge cattle fair is also organised at the same time.

Matsya Festival

25-26 November, 2022/Alwar

The Matsya Festival of Alwar is held in November over two days. It celebrates the prosperity, traditional values and colourful customs of the region and is noted for its colourful processions, cultural performances, an array of sporting events and impressive artistic exhibitions. The magnificence of
