THE DIRTY DOZEN

Canada-based pro-Khalistani elements and gangsters who are wanted in terror-related cases in Punjab

ARSHDEEP SINGH DALA, 27
Gangster/ Khalistan Tiger Force (KTF)

A dreaded gangster from Punjab's Moga, Dala moved to Canada with wife, daughter in 2020. Based in Surrey, he worked closely with KTF chief Hardeep Singh Nijjar and Pakistan-based ISYF chief Lakhbir Singh Rode. Set up modules for targeted killings/extortion in Punjab, Haryana. Faces 26 FIRs in Punjab, Interpol's red-corner notice.

SATINDERJIT SINGH, a.k.a. GOLDY BRAR, 35
Gangster

Gangster Lawrence Bishnoi's second-in-command, he is running the gang's extortion racket and other criminal activities from Canada, where he moved in 2017. Allegedly ordered the hit on singer Sidhu Moosewala and ran terror modules for KTF to carry out targeted killings in Punjab. Faces at least 13 FIRs back home, two red-corner notices. Some reports suggest he escaped to the US in 2022.

LAKHBIR SINGH, a.k.a. LANDA, 34
Gangster/ Babbar Khalsa International (BKI)

Son of an ex-serviceman from Tarn Taran, he is a close aide of Pakistan-based Harwinder Singh Rinda, a gangster-turned-BKI terrorist. Fled to Canada in 2018, from where he is running his operations. Wanted in high-profile cases in Punjab, including RPG attack on the Intelligence HQ of the state police in Mohali in May 2022. In all, faces 23 FIRs back home.

GURJIT SINGH CHEEMA, 50
International Sikh Youth Federation (ISYF)/ Khalistan Liberation Force (KLF)

A trucker by profession, he is based in Brampton, Ontario. Visited India in 2017 to allegedly operationalise a terror module. Arranged a weapons consignment from across the border with the help of Pakistan-based ISYF chief Rode. Has a red-corner notice since 2018.

GURPREET SINGH BRAR, 38
ISYF/ KLF

Belonging to Moga, he is presently based in Surrey. Had established Brampton-headquartered 'Singh Khalsa Sewa Club'. On his visit to Punjab in 2016, Brar allegedly raised an ISYF terror module to target sacrilege suspects. Was booked under the UAPA in Amritsar in 2017; has a red-corner notice against him since 2018.

MALKEET SINGH FAUJI, 39
ISYF/ BKI

Hailing from Ajnala in Amritsar, he migrated to Canada in 2014, after allegedly operationalising an ISYF module to carry out targeted killings of right-wing Hindu leaders and controversial Sikh preachers. Presently based in Surrey, he has been funding other terror modules. A red-corner notice was issued in 2020.

MANVIR SINGH DUHRA, 34
ISYF

Born and raised in Italy, he now resides in Fort St John, British Columbia, and has been allegedly involved in spotting and radicalising Sikh youths for carrying out terrorist activities in Punjab. At Fauji's behest, he is said to have sent funds for raising an ISYF module. Had even visited Punjab in 2017 to motivate the module members to target sacrilege suspects.
