Chunda Shikar Oudi, Udaipur, Rajasthan

A former hunting outpost of the nobles-turned-nature retreat, Chunda Shikar Oudi, with its easy airport accessibility, is a treat. Boasting two accommodation units, one on either side of a water body, the suites have stunning views, are decked with all amenities, furnished with custom-made furniture and artfully decorated to exude luxury. For wildlife enthusiasts, the property offers safaris and nature walks, fishing and birdwatching excursions among other experiences like horse riding and yoga. Guests can enjoy curated fine dining and meals made with locally sourced ingredients at various locations—breakfast by the poolside, a sundowner at leopard point or private dinners by the lakeside! Enjoy a weekend of luxury, and it's just a flight away.

Taj Corbett Resort & Spa, Ramnagar, Uttarakhand

A luxurious 11-acre property featuring 75 cottage-style rooms seasoned wildlife enthusiasts may be well familiar with, Taj Corbett Resort & Spa recently unveiled a new collection of 11 lavish suites to cater to a guest's every need. These new suites boast floor-to-ceiling French windows and a private river-facing sit-out in the lap of nature. The suites are done in earthy tones and use natural materials to evoke a sense of rustic charm, and the décor is inspired by the verdant foliage, with every design piece an ode to the indigenous flora and fauna. Nine of the 11 suites are already in operation and guests can enjoy this tranquil retreat and indulge in their wildlife safari dreams in what could be an unforgettable getaway.
