Aalia Jungle Retreat & Spa, Bandarjudh, Uttarakhand

This brand-new luxury tented resort is nestled in the foothills of the Himalayas, adjacent to the Rajaji National Park. The latest property in the Claridges Collection portfolio, it is spread over 50 acres with 11 lavishly-curated tented lodgings adorned with elegant furnishings. Aalia Jungle Retreat & Spa's tranquil, understated sophistication creates an inviting atmosphere for guests. Apart from guided nature walks and safaris with expert naturalists, the retreat offers activities like horse-riding, archery and golf. Guests can also enjoy bespoke picnics beneath mango trees or bask in the swimming pool, revitalise with a spa treatment or practise yoga surrounded by nature.

The Riverwood Forest Retreat, Kanha, Madhya Pradesh

This new forest retreat, under the umbrella of Waxpol Hotels and Resorts, embodies environmental sustainability as its core philosophy, and aims to provide guests with conscious luxury experiences set within the most natural surroundings. The group has been a frontrunner in ecotourism, and this property is no different, boasting solar energy, a sewage treatment plant and green materials for construction. Located midway between the Kisli and Mukki gates of the Kanha National Park and overlooking a water body, the retreat has 18 spacious cottages with large glass windows to showcase the locale's breathtaking views. Guests can partake in jeep safaris, nature walks, birdwatching tours and photography expeditions, or enjoy local village excursions before unwinding at the retreat's spa. End the day with delicious food at Tilao, the inhouse restaurant.
