▼ CHHATTISGARH YOUTH: MAKING THEM JOB-READY

"Youth in Chhattisgarh or anywhere else are not a homogeneous group. The aspirations of youth in central Chhattisgarh are different from those in north or south"

SHRISH KALYANI,
Associate Director and State Lead-Transforming Rural India Foundation

"I always dreamt of playing for India. I didn't have a roadmap, but the only thing I knew was to do better than others to realise my dream"

KIRAN PISDA,
Member, Indian Women's Football Team

"Chhattisgarh has huge potential for religious tourism, as well as for wildlife tourism, sports and niche agriculture products. The youth must look beyond government jobs too"

COL. AVINASH SINGH (RETD),
Principal, Rajkumar College, Raipur

"The government under various schemes has put Rs 1.8 lakh crore in people's hands... When villages are self-reliant, there's a trickle-down effect on urban areas too"

VIKAS UPADHYAY,
MLA, Raipur West

▼ SINGING A DIFFERENT TUNE

"Today's reality shows are tougher because it is a level playing field. One has to compete with oneself"

AMIT SANA,
Singer and former Indian Idol contestant

"I have tried to infuse the strains of Bhakti and Sufi in my music. And my interpretation of this genre is my contribution to music"

DR BHARTI BANDHU,
Padma Shri-awarded vocalist and composer