

The National Games of India are being held again after a gap of seven years, with the state of Gujarat hosting them in a grand manner across six cities.

THE NATIONAL GAMES ARE BACK WITH A Bang

On September 29, Prime Minister Narendra Modi declared the 36th National Games of India open at Ahmedabad in Gujarat in a grand ceremony that saw gala performances and a spectacular fireworks display. The opening ceremony was held at the Narendra Modi Stadium in Motera, the largest stadium in the world with a seating capacity of 132,000 spectators. Several artists from around India delighted the audience with some captivating performances. A drone show and stunning fireworks were some of the other highlights of the ceremony. This was the grandest opening ceremony the National Games have ever seen.

The Hon'ble Prime Minister's motivational words during the Opening Ceremony encouraged the sportspersons, coaches and youth to strive for higher levels of excellence, break records and create new illustrious records during the National Games.

