"I don't believe in Bollywood, Sandalwood, in these 'woods'... Just because things are working for us [South], I can't say 'we have surpassed you and Bollywood will be finished'... Let's just do good work. The audience does not care where it is coming from"

"The scale of KGF's success surprised a lot of people... What we are celebrating is only a fraction of what we can do... India has much more to offer. If we all come together, we could offer something big. We have tapped only 5 to 10 per cent of the potential"

"Only when the numbers are there will people respect you... Everybody is looking towards the Kannada film industry because of the numbers we have hit... If I can be accepted across the country, anybody can be"
