STUDENTSPEAK

"At SRCC, we don't feel like we are just passively listening to lectures. It is a discussion and they engage us through case studies, projects and various feedback sessions. We also get to know details of the corporate world and can prepare for the future accordingly"

GAUTAM JAIN
BCom, 3rd year

how to read a balance sheet like a pro and the planning of a glittering career after college—there are over 50 societies here for students to pursue hobbies. No wonder, even after students graduate, they maintain close links with faculty and peers from SRCC. "I have made some friends for life here," says third-year student Gautam Jain. Life might move on, but in his heart he says he will always remain an SRite. ■
